Our college is affiliated to S. P. University. According to S. P. University syllabus different submission were given to student-teachers. As per given time interval, submissions were checked by concerned faculty. CIE had been done throughout the year by evaluating given submissions through seminars, symposium and other techniques. When the student-teachers were going for practice teaching in different schools their CIE has been done during their teaching work. Assignments on cornered subjects were given and checked out by faculty throughout the year. Mechanism of internal assessment is transparent as during Micro-teaching lessons student-teachers were informed their marks too. At the end of Internal Semester exam internal marking was also shown on the notice board of the college

2.5.3 – Academic calendar prepared and adhered for conduct of Examination and other related matters (250 words)

The college is following Sardar Patel University prescribed Semester System and Choice Based Credit System. Sardar University has provided annual planning for vacation and university examination. The college went through that University planning and prepared institutional yearly planning for activities about teaching, practice teaching and examination. According to the university examination, the college has planned internal examinations for both semesters. Practice Teaching in schools was planned according to the yearly planning of schools. Assignments were also planned to prepare and submit in college during the Practice Teaching programme. Other assignments were also put in annual planning of college. The annual planning was integrated with work distribution to Teaching Faculty. The students were oriented in the beginning of the semester. The annual Calendar was flexible according to the college circumstances, but we insisted to follow the calendar throughout the year.

Our college is start with assembly which is unique and different. We held many activities in our assembly like 'sarva dharm prarthna', reading of 'satya na prayogo', and 'prayer talk' by student teachers. In 'Sarva dharma prarthna' we include Sanskrit shlokas from Vedas, Islamic prayer, Buddha prayer, Jain prayer, and Christian prayer. In this way we try to establish values of all religions in our student teachers. We also conduct prayer talk on different subject to reduce stage fear and increase values in our student teachers. In our assembly our students read Gandhiji's biography 'Satya na Prayogo' so they can learn life message by Gandhiji. In our assembly we also celebrate birthday of all staff members and students by giving them best wishes. We give tribute on the death of relatives of staff, students, society and nation. In last we give brief information on day to day work and future planning. In this way we conduct our assembly for all round development of student teachers.
